Ooops,

Below is corrected language:

"As a condition for taking further action on any complaint, the Board of Ethics shall thoroughly vet complaints to ensure that each and every allegation made is credible and supported by clear and convincing evidence provided by the complainant."

Ben,

As discussed, below is language I plan to propose this evening for a change to the Ethics Code:

"As a condition for taking further action on any complainant, the Board of Ethics shall thoroughly vet complaints to ensure that each and every allegation made is credible and supported by clear and convincing evidence provided by the complainant."

It might be helpful to the committee to have the language available during the meeting.

There are several other edits I plan to propose aimed at removing subjectivity in favor of objectivity, but not yet ready to introduce.

Many thanks for all you do.

Regards,

Virgil
