

Opponents' Exhibit 7: This matter is not properly before the Board of Representatives.

Richard W. Redniss is shown as the Applicant on the Application for Change in the Zoning Map. The Zoning Board does not have the authority to consider the ZB Application because according to the Tax Assessor's records Mr. Redniss does not own property in the City of Stamford. Only property owners and governmental officials may file a written application with the Zoning Board for an amendment to the Zoning Map. (Charter Section C6-40-4)

Sec. C6-40-4. Applications for Amendments to the Zoning Map After Effective Date of the Master Plan.

- (a) After the effective date of the Master Plan, any Stamford property owner or governmental agency, department, board or official, may file a written application with the Zoning Board for an amendment to the Zoning Map...(emphasis added)
