Any such interruption or discontinuance of service shall not be deemed an eviction or disturbance of Tenant's use and possession of the Entire Premises, or any part thereof, nor render Landlord liable to Tenant for damages by abatement of the Rent or otherwise, nor relieve Tenant from performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Landlord shall, however, exercise reasonable diligence to promptly restore any service so interrupted.

In such event Tenant shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord and Landlord's employees, agents and contractors to the same extent as the required insurance, in addition to any indemnification otherwise required of Tenant under this Lease.

10. Casualty and Condemnation.

(a) If the School Building and the Gym shall be partially damaged by fire or other casualty so that the damage can reasonably be repaired by Landlord within 180 days following the date of Landlord's receipt of the insurance proceeds for said fire or casualty, then the damage shall be diligently repaired by and at the expense of Landlord (to the extent of net insurance proceeds received by Landlord for restoration), subject to applicable Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements, and the Rent until such repairs shall be made shall abate and be apportioned according to the part of the Entire Premises which is tenantable. If Landlord has not substantially completed the restoration or rebuilding of the School Building and/or the Gym, as the case may be, to substantially the same condition as existed prior to such fire or other casualty within 180 days after the receipt of the insurance proceeds for said fire or casualty (subject to delays due to weather, labor shortages or any other events beyond Landlord's control), Tenant shall have the option, which must be exercised, if at all, not later than thirty (30) days following the expiration of said 180-day period, to terminate this Lease, which termination shall be effective as of Tenant's said termination notice.

If Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, the provisions of subsection (a) shall govern.

(c) Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to, or be required (under any provision of this Lease or otherwise) to repair, restore, or replace any property in the Entire Premises or be liable to Tenant for any damage arising from rain or snow or from the bursting or overflowing of leakage of water, steam or gas pipes or defects in the plumbing, HVAC, mechanical or electrical systems of the School Building and Gym.

(d) If the whole of the Entire Premises shall be acquired or condemned by eminent domain for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, or if any substantial part thereof or of the School Building or the Gym is so acquired or condemned as to render the Entire Premises untenable, or so that Landlord elects not to restore same but to demolish it, then and in that event, the Term shall cease and terminate from the date of taking, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord or the condemning authority for the value of the unexpired Term, and rent shall be adjusted and paid to the date of such termination. Tenant shall have the right to claim its moving expenses and the value of its property in the Entire Premises.

11. Assignment and Subleasing. Neither Tenant nor any party claiming under or through Tenant shall assign, mortgage or encumber this Lease, or sublease all or any part of the Entire Premises, or suffer or permit the Entire Premises or any part thereof to be subleased to or used by others, without the prior written consent of Landlord in each instance, which consent Landlord may withhold in its sole and absolute discretion. The consent by Landlord to an assignment or subletting shall not be construed to relieve Tenant from obtaining the express consent in writing of Landlord to any further assignment or subletting.

12. Indemnification. Subject to Section 10(c) hereof, Tenant shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord, its employees, agents and contractors against and from all liabilities, including reasonable attorneys' fees, which may be imposed upon or incurred by or asserted against Landlord or such other persons by reason of any of the following occurring during the Term or prior thereto when Tenant has been given access to the Entire Premises: (i) any work or thing done in the Premises by or at the request of Tenant or any of Tenant's Representatives ; (ii) any negligence or wrongful act or omission of Tenant or any of Tenant's Representatives; and (iii) any accident, injury, loss or damage to any person or property occurring in the Premises caused by the Tenants' negligent or wrongful act or omission. The foregoing shall not apply to any damage caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of the Landlord.

13. Quiet Enjoyment, Holding Over.

(a) Upon Tenant paying the Rent and observing and performing all the terms, covenants and conditions on Tenant's part to be observed and performed, Tenant may peaceably and quietly enjoy the Entire Premises hereby demised, free from any interference, molestation or acts of Landlord or of anyone claiming by, through or under Landlord, subject, nevertheless, to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

(b) If Tenant retains possession of the Entire Premises or any part thereof after the Expiration Date or earlier termination date without the written consent of Landlord, Tenant's occupancy shall be under all of the terms and conditions of this Lease, except that the tenancy shall be at will, terminable by either party on thirty (30) days' written notice; and (ii) Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless for all damages sustained and liabilities incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's continued occupancy beyond thirty (30) days after Landlord's notice to Tenant under this subsection.

(c) Anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, if Tenant shall retain possession of part or all of the Entire Premises after the Expiration Date or earlier termination date hereof, then any extension or renewal rights, first offer and first refusal rights, and expansion rights, if any, herein shall terminate.

14. Default.

(a) If (i) Tenant defaults in the payment, when due, of any installment of Rent and Tenant fails to remedy such default within fifteen (15) days after notice from Landlord; or (ii) Tenant defaults in fulfilling any material covenant of this Lease and Tenant fails to remedy such default within 30 days after notice by Landlord to Tenant specifying the nature of such default (or if the said default cannot be completely cured or remedied within said 30-day period and Tenant shall not have diligently commenced curing such default within such 30-day period and shall not thereafter diligently remedy or cure such default within 60 days after notice from Landlord), then Landlord may, by notice to Tenant, cancel this Lease, and this Lease and the Term hereunder shall end and expire as fully and completely as if the date of cancellation were the day herein definitely fixed for the end and expiration of this Lease and the Term hereof. Tenant shall then quit and surrender the Entire Premises to Landlord, but Tenant shall remain liable as hereinafter provided.

(b) If (i) a notice provided for in subsection (a) above shall have been given and the Term shall expire as aforesaid, or (ii) any execution shall be issued against Tenant or any of Tenant's property, whereupon the Entire Premises shall be taken or occupied or attempted to be taken or occupied by someone other than Tenant, then and in any of such events, Landlord may, without notice, re-enter the Entire Premises, and dispossess Tenant, and the legal representative of Tenant or other occupant of the Entire Premises, by summary proceedings or otherwise, and remove their effects and hold the Entire Premises as if this Lease had not been made. Tenant hereby waives the service of notice of intention to re-enter or to institute legal proceedings to that end, but Tenant shall remain liable for damages as hereinafter provided.

(c) Without limiting any of Landlord's rights hereunder, if Tenant shall default in the observance or performance of any term or covenant of this Lease, Landlord may, after fifteen (15) days' notice to Tenant to cure the default and failure of Tenant to cure the same within such period, or at any time thereafter without notice in event of emergency, perform the same for the account of Tenant. If Landlord makes any expenditures or incurs any obligations in connection with a default by Tenant, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees in instituting, prosecuting or defending any action or proceeding against Tenant, such sums paid or obligations incurred, with interest (as provided below) and costs, shall be deemed to be Additional Rent hereunder and shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within fifteen (15) days of rendition of any bill or statement to Tenant hereunder.

15. Notice. Any notice, demand, consent, approval, direction, agreement or other communication required or permitted hereunder or under any other documents in connection herewith shall be in writing and shall be directed as follows:

16. Deleted by agreement of the parties.

17. No Representations By Landlord.

(a) Landlord and Landlord's agents have made no representations or promises with respect to the Property or the Entire Premises, including the uses permitted under applicable law, except for representations herein expressly set forth.

18. Arbitration.

(a) In the event of any dispute between the parties relating to this Lease, such dispute shall be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association (the "Association"), or its successor, to be held before a single arbitrator in Stamford, CT. If, at any time, neither the Association nor a successor thereto shall exist, Landlord shall reasonably designate an independent organization performing comparable functions, and such organization shall be substituted herein for the Association. The judgment upon the award rendered in any arbitration hereunder shall be final and binding on both parties hereto and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(b) During an arbitration proceeding pursuant to this Article, the parties shall continue to perform and discharge all of their respective Obligations under this Lease.

(c) The person to act as arbitrator hereunder shall have at least ten (10) years' experience in commercial real estate matters and, in particular, the subject matter of the dispute (e.g., a real estate appraiser for valuation questions).

(d) When resolving any matter, the arbitrator shall apply the pertinent provisions of this Lease without departure therefrom in any respect. The arbitrator shall not have the power to change any of the provisions of this Lease, but this Section shall not prevent, in any appropriate case, the interpretation, construction and determination by the arbitrator of the applicable provisions of this Lease to the extent necessary in applying the same to the matters to be determined by arbitration.

19. Miscellaneous.

(a) This Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate to (i) any and all mortgages now or hereafter affecting the fee title of the Property, and to any and all present and future extensions, modifications, renewals, replacements and amendments thereof; and (ii) any and all ground leases now or hereafter affecting the Property or any part thereof and to any and all extensions, modifications, renewals, replacements and amendments thereof. Tenant will execute and deliver promptly to Landlord any reasonable certificate or instrument which Landlord, from time to time, may request for confirmation of the provisions of this Section.

(b) The covenants, conditions and agreements contained in this Lease shall bind and inure to the benefit of Landlord and Tenant and their respective successors and, except as otherwise provided in this Lease, their assigns.

(c) Each party hereto represents that it has not contracted with any realtor, broker or agent in connection with the negotiation of this Lease, and each party hereto shall pay and hold harmless the other from any cost, expense or liability (including costs of suit and attorneys' fees) arising from a misrepresentation or omission of fact with respect to the foregoing.

(d) Each covenant and agreement in this Lease shall be construed to be a separate and independent covenant and agreement, and the breach of any such covenant or agreement by Landlord shall not discharge or relieve Tenant from Tenant's obligations to perform every covenant and agreement of this Lease to be performed by Tenant. If any term or provision of this Lease or any application thereof shall be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease and any other application of such term shall not be affected thereby. The use of the term "herein" shall mean "in this Lease" unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(e) This Lease shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Connecticut.

(f) This Lease contains the entire agreement between the parties and all representations relating to this tenancy or to the Entire Premises are included herein. This Lease also supersedes any and all prior agreements and understandings between the parties and alone expresses the agreements of the parties. Tenant shall look solely to the estate and interest of Landlord, its successors and assigns, in the Property for the collection of a judgment in the event of a default by Landlord hereunder, and no other property or assets of Landlord or any officer, director or partner of Landlord shall be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedure for the satisfaction of Tenant's remedies.

(g) The failure of either party to insist in any one (1) or more instances upon the strict performance of any one (1) or more of the agreements, terms, covenants, conditions or obligations of this Lease, or to exercise any right, remedy or election herein contained, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of the performance of such one (1) or more obligations of this Lease or of the right to exercise such election, but the same shall continue and remain in full force and effect with respect to any subsequent breach, act or omission, whether of a similar nature or otherwise.

(h) If either party is unable to or is prevented or delayed from performing any act on its part to be performed hereunder, except for Tenant's covenant to pay Rent, by reason of strike or labor troubles, or any other condition beyond such party's reasonable control, including without limitation governmental preemption in connection with a national emergency or by reason of any rule, order or regulation of any department or subdivision of any governmental agency, or by reason of conditions of supply and demand which have been or are affected by war or other emergency, such party's time to perform any act under the terms of this Lease shall be extended until such condition which prevented or delayed such party from performing its covenants has terminated.

(i) Each party shall, at any time and from time to time at the request of the other party upon not less than ten (10) days' notice, execute and deliver to the other a statement certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications that the same is in full force and effect, as modified, and stating the modifications), certifying the date to which the fixed minimum rent and additional rents have been paid, and stating whether or not, to the knowledge of the party executing such statement, the other party is in default in performance of any of its obligations under this Lease, and if so, specifying each such default of which the party executing such statement may have knowledge, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant thereto may be relied upon by others with whom the party requesting such certificate may be dealing.

(j) Each of the parties hereto warrants and represents that it has full right and authority to enter into, execute and perform its obligations under this Lease, and that, to its knowledge, there are not restrictive covenants, zoning ordinances or other prohibitions which adversely affect Tenant's rights under this Lease.

(k) Except to the extent required by law or legal process, the existence and contents of this Lease shall not be disclosed to third parties other than the agents, attorneys, advisors and contractors of each party without the consent of both parties, and no advertisement or other publicity concerning the transaction shall be made or disseminated by either party without the consent of the other.

(l) Time shall be of the essence with respect to all timeframes under this Lease.

(m) This Lease may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

20. City Board Approvals; Nonappropriation. This Lease shall be contingent upon the approval of the City of Stamford Planning Board, Board of Finance, and Board of Representatives. In the event that the City's Board of Finance or Board of Representatives fails to appropriate sufficient funds to pay the City's obligations pursuant to this Lease, this Lease shall terminate on July 1 of the Fiscal Year for which such insufficient appropriation was not made, and the City shall have no obligation to make any additional payments to the Landlord for any period subsequent to that July 1.
