RE: Correction of Scrivener's Error in Capital Budget

In the Capital Budget that I transmitted to you yesterday, an error occurred in the identification of a new project on page 21. That project should have been identified as follows:

NEW STIMULUS PROJECT MATCHING FUNDS – STAMFORD URBAN TRANSITWAY

I apologize for this error, which occurred when I was separating out a portion of the funding recommended as local match for the Stamford Urban Transitway, Phase II, as potential match for stimulus funds which may be available for either phase of the project. The SUT remains my highest priority public works project, and we continue to seek state and federal funding for it. The funds in the above-mentioned project, if approved, will be utilized for that project in order to maximize grant funds available to complete it.

I ask that you kindly consider this correction when you deliberate on the Capital Budget in the coming weeks.
